

applicants can at least speak some English. "I am also careful to see that they are familiar with our form of government. "If they swear falsely, as I said before, I am powerless."

When Judge Giegerich had finished, he said there were then waiting for him in the court-room a number of applicants for citizen papers, and he courteously invited the reporter to a seat beside him to hear the questions he put to the would-be citizens.

"I refuse to admit one-tenth of the applicants," said Judge Giegerich, as he entered the court-room.

There were at least a score of men awaiting the Judge's arrival.

As they, with their witnesses, came before the Judge he questioned them closely as to their residence in this country, making them in many cases state where they had lived since their arrival here and the time they had lived in each place.

The witnesses were also closely questioned and in some cases, where the answers were not satisfactory, the applicants were rejected.

All the Italian colony is delighted at "The Evening World's" exposure of the naturalization gang.

Dr. Luigi Roveri, editor of Il Progresso, an Italian-American paper, says the work of "The Evening World" is a splendid thing. No Italian who is honest can help but applaud the men who make this disclosure. It is the greatest crime that can be committed against the State and the Republic for a person to become a citizen by fraud, and it is a blot on the Italian colony which we will all be glad to have wiped out.

"De Vito I believe to be an ignorant man, who, if he has committed this crime as charged, must have been the tool of others who are more responsible than he. I am afraid these men will be killed."

Frank La Malfa, banker at 121 Mulberry street, brother of Carlo La Malfa, Republican candidate for Assembly in the Eighth District last Fall, said: "We are all glad of this, but I am afraid for the Mancini. I am afraid these men will be killed."

Carlo La Malfa—it is a fine thing for the Republican party and the Italian colony. It is a blow at Tammany Hall from which it will not easily recover."

Dr. Andreoli, of 124 Mulberry street—the Italian colony is full of joy over the work of the Twenty-second Precinct.

Supt. Byrnes made an investigation into the matter, and his case was not similar to that of Capt. Haughey and Martens. After receiving Byrnes' report, the Commissioner entirely ignored the Superintendent's judgment in the case, and in crude terms told him by ordering him to charge Capt. Haughey with neglect of duty.

The result of the trial will demonstrate an important fact. If Haughey is found guilty on the evidence adduced, it will be somewhat of a reflection on Supt. Byrnes. On the other hand, if Haughey is not discovered to have been derelict in performing his duty, the Commissioner will be forced to acknowledge that in his opinion, Capt. Haughey was not guilty.

Vincenzo Palumbo, banker, 193 Mott street—You have done a great thing for the Italian colony. You have exposed a shame which has been exposed. There are hundreds of honest Italians in the city who will rejoice. It is a great wrong that men who resort to knavery and deceit should be able to gain such a tremendous advantage over honest and industrious men as this traffic in citizen papers has given them. Only the base and the vicious will be sorry for it.

Sig. Balogone, member of the firm of Hatfield & Co., of Wall street—"The Evening World" has rendered a service to the city for which it deserves a monument.

G. Cuneo, a wealthy banker—it is to be deplored that such a state of affairs should exist in the Italian colony. The revelation of "The Evening World" was a surprise to many, and I am sure it is also to many of my friends.

G. Anselmi, banker, of Mott street—it is a satisfaction to see De Vito caught, and I hope that the other conspirators will be arrested, too.

Dr. D. Salidino, 320 Broome street—"The Evening World" has rendered a great service to the Italian colony. I am pleased at the result.

Lawyer De Marzo, of St. Bayard street—I feel deeply the shame which has been cast upon the Italian colony, but I rejoice for the men who are most responsible for it are to be punished at last.

John Sergi, one of the best-known members of the colony—This traffic in citizen papers has been going on for years, and I have had evidence that they could be readily obtained.

Send Them to Prison.

(From the Philadelphia Record.)

"The New York World's" disclosure of the wholesale sale of fraudulent naturalization papers is too circumstantial and too well attested on its face to be lightly regarded, and it is a matter of regret that the shameful business, carried on so widely and so openly, must have had considerable success. It is a matter of regret that the business has been exposed, and that the men who are most responsible for it are to be punished at last.

Over $10,000 Missing from Letters Sent to an Indiana Town.

(By Associated Press.)

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 27.—Mysterious disappearance of letters sent to a small town in Indiana, has resulted in the loss of over $10,000. The letters, which were sent to a small town in Indiana, have been found to contain a large sum of money. The letters were sent to a small town in Indiana, and the money was found to be missing. The letters were sent to a small town in Indiana, and the money was found to be missing.

Three Buildings Burned and One Man Fatally Hurt.

(By Associated Press.)

HUBBARD, O., March 27.—At Hubbard, Ohio, three buildings were burned Saturday night. A fire started in one of the buildings, and spread to the others. One man was killed and several others were injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in one of the buildings.

Three Buildings Burned and One Man Fatally Hurt.

(By Associated Press.)

HUBBARD, O., March 27.—At Hubbard, Ohio, three buildings were burned Saturday night. A fire started in one of the buildings, and spread to the others. One man was killed and several others were injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in one of the buildings.

Three Buildings Burned and One Man Fatally Hurt.

(By Associated Press.)

HUBBARD, O., March 27.—At Hubbard, Ohio, three buildings were burned Saturday night. A fire started in one of the buildings, and spread to the others. One man was killed and several others were injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in one of the buildings.

Three Buildings Burned and One Man Fatally Hurt.

(By Associated Press.)

HUBBARD, O., March 27.—At Hubbard, Ohio, three buildings were burned Saturday night. A fire started in one of the buildings, and spread to the others. One man was killed and several others were injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in one of the buildings.

Three Buildings Burned and One Man Fatally Hurt.

(By Associated Press.)

HUBBARD, O., March 27.—At Hubbard, Ohio, three buildings were burned Saturday night. A fire started in one of the buildings, and spread to the others. One man was killed and several others were injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in one of the buildings.

Three Buildings Burned and One Man Fatally Hurt.

(By Associated Press.)

HUBBARD, O., March 27.—At Hubbard, Ohio, three buildings were burned Saturday night. A fire started in one of the buildings, and spread to the others. One man was killed and several others were injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in one of the buildings.

Three Buildings Burned and One Man Fatally Hurt.

(By Associated Press.)

HUBBARD, O., March 27.—At Hubbard, Ohio, three buildings were burned Saturday night. A fire started in one of the buildings, and spread to the others. One man was killed and several others were injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in one of the buildings.

HAUGHEY ON TRIAL.

The Accused Police Captain Appears Without Counsel.

Says He Is Sure He Will Get Fair Treatment.

Outcome of the Case Will Develop a Peculiar Situation.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

Considerable interest is felt about Police Headquarters and in police circles generally in the trial of Police Captain William H. Haughey, of the West Forty-seventh street station, which began at 11 o'clock this morning.

LADLAW-SAGE SUIT OPENED.

Ex-Judge Noah Davis Tells of the Bomb Explosion.

Lawyers Watching the Fight of the Legal Gladiators.

When the hour for resuming the trial of the suit of William H. Ladlaw to recover $25,000 from Russell Sage, arrived this morning it was discovered that two of the jurors were absent. The Court was kept waiting for fifteen minutes. When the tardy jurors finally put in an appearance Justice Patterson notified them that they must not repeat their offense.

Russell Sage was not present at the opening of the trial. The court-room was crowded. The audience was composed largely of lawyers, who desired to watch the fight of such legal gladiators as ex-Judge Dillon, Col. E. C. James and Rush Tassett, who appear as counsel for Mr. Sage, and Joseph H. Choate, ex-Judge Noah Davis and the late Chief Justice, Henry W. Ladd, who appear as counsel for Mr. Ladlaw.

The Supreme Court, General Term, reversed Justice Andrews' ruling in the Ladlaw case, and the trial was continued. The jury was sworn, and the trial was opened by ex-Judge Davis.

The proceedings opened with an address to the jury by ex-Judge Davis. He gave a brief description of the man Russell Sage, and his connection with the Ladlaw case. He then proceeded to tell of the bomb explosion which occurred on December 19, 1891, at the residence of Mr. Ladlaw, and the damage done to the property.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

The jury then retired to consider their verdict. The trial was continued tomorrow morning.

ZELL IS IN PRISON.

The Defaulting Treasurer Unable to Furnish $10,000 Bail.

He Told Supt. Byrnes that He Was Dead Broke.

Confesses that He Robbed His Company of $93,000.

William T. Zell, the absconding Secretary and Treasurer of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company, who surrendered himself to Supt. Byrnes last night, was arraigned before Justice Ryan in the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Zell, the claimant, the once popular man-about-town, a race-track habitué and ex-high-roller-in-chief in the Tenderloin district, was a marvellously changed man as he stood with furrowed brow and hunched back, and prematurely whitened, awaiting his informal arraignment.

The carefully trained dark-brown mustache that caressed his upper lip now gracefully in the old days of wine, women and song had been removed, and the entire character of his face altered. He was a changed man, and his eyes were now fixed on the ground.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Zell, the claimant, the once popular man-about-town, a race-track habitué and ex-high-roller-in-chief in the Tenderloin district, was a marvellously changed man as he stood with furrowed brow and hunched back, and prematurely whitened, awaiting his informal arraignment.

The carefully trained dark-brown mustache that caressed his upper lip now gracefully in the old days of wine, women and song had been removed, and the entire character of his face altered. He was a changed man, and his eyes were now fixed on the ground.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Zell, the claimant, the once popular man-about-town, a race-track habitué and ex-high-roller-in-chief in the Tenderloin district, was a marvellously changed man as he stood with furrowed brow and hunched back, and prematurely whitened, awaiting his informal arraignment.

The carefully trained dark-brown mustache that caressed his upper lip now gracefully in the old days of wine, women and song had been removed, and the entire character of his face altered. He was a changed man, and his eyes were now fixed on the ground.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Zell, the claimant, the once popular man-about-town, a race-track habitué and ex-high-roller-in-chief in the Tenderloin district, was a marvellously changed man as he stood with furrowed brow and hunched back, and prematurely whitened, awaiting his informal arraignment.

The carefully trained dark-brown mustache that caressed his upper lip now gracefully in the old days of wine, women and song had been removed, and the entire character of his face altered. He was a changed man, and his eyes were now fixed on the ground.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Zell, the claimant, the once popular man-about-town, a race-track habitué and ex-high-roller-in-chief in the Tenderloin district, was a marvellously changed man as he stood with furrowed brow and hunched back, and prematurely whitened, awaiting his informal arraignment.

The carefully trained dark-brown mustache that caressed his upper lip now gracefully in the old days of wine, women and song had been removed, and the entire character of his face altered. He was a changed man, and his eyes were now fixed on the ground.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Zell, the claimant, the once popular man-about-town, a race-track habitué and ex-high-roller-in-chief in the Tenderloin district, was a marvellously changed man as he stood with furrowed brow and hunched back, and prematurely whitened, awaiting his informal arraignment.

The carefully trained dark-brown mustache that caressed his upper lip now gracefully in the old days of wine, women and song had been removed, and the entire character of his face altered. He was a changed man, and his eyes were now fixed on the ground.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Zell, the claimant, the once popular man-about-town, a race-track habitué and ex-high-roller-in-chief in the Tenderloin district, was a marvellously changed man as he stood with furrowed brow and hunched back, and prematurely whitened, awaiting his informal arraignment.

The carefully trained dark-brown mustache that caressed his upper lip now gracefully in the old days of wine, women and song had been removed, and the entire character of his face altered. He was a changed man, and his eyes were now fixed on the ground.

He was examined and was committed to jail on $10,000 bail to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of forgery.

Le Pontillier Bros.

14th St.

Lamps.

$1.08

Also a large variety of imported vases, mounted in brass, from $2.50 to $7.50 each.

350 Rolls China Matting, various designs, new goods, worth 50c. per yard.

Japanese and Turkish Rugs in large variety at lowest prices.

14th St.

Must Answer to Flower.

He Summons Reformatory Managers to Appear Before Him.

Little Doubt that Brockway Will Be Put Out.

Gov. Flower has summoned the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory to appear before him in Albany to-morrow, to give answer to the arraignment made by the State Board of Charities.

The Board of Charities, in its report to the State of Brockway and Brockway, and the inhuman treatment of erring youths consigned to the State's institution for reform, seem about to be crowned with success.

What answer can the Board of Managers make that will satisfy the Governor, less than Brockway's summary dismissal from office?

It is the plain duty of Gov. Flower to put Brockway to the test, and put a good man in, hedged about with the restrictions which should prevent the new man from falling to Brockway's level of cruelty and brutality," said Dr. Parkhurst, when told of the Governor's action.

Brockway should have been summarily dismissed, and the reformatory should have been placed in the hands of a good man, instead of a man who has been shown to be a cruel and brutal man.

Gov. Flower has summoned the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory to appear before him in Albany to-morrow, to give answer to the arraignment made by the State Board of Charities.

The Board of Charities, in its report to the State of Brockway and Brockway, and the inhuman treatment of erring youths consigned to the State's institution for reform, seem about to be crowned with success.

What answer can the Board of Managers make that will satisfy the Governor, less than Brockway's summary dismissal from office?

It is the plain duty of Gov. Flower to put Brockway to the test, and put a good man in, hedged about with the restrictions which should prevent the new man from falling to Brockway's level of cruelty and brutality," said Dr. Parkhurst, when told of the Governor's action.

Brockway should have been summarily dismissed, and the reformatory should have been placed in the hands of a good man, instead of a man who has been shown to be a cruel and brutal man.

Gov. Flower has summoned the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory to appear before him in Albany to-morrow, to give answer to the arraignment made by the State Board of Charities.

The Board of Charities, in its report to the State of Brockway and Brockway, and the inhuman treatment of erring youths consigned to the State's institution for reform, seem about to be crowned with success.

What answer can the Board of Managers make that will satisfy the Governor, less than Brockway's summary dismissal from office?

It is the plain duty of Gov. Flower to put Brockway to the test, and put a good man in, hedged about with the restrictions which should prevent the new man from falling to Brockway's level of cruelty and brutality," said Dr. Parkhurst, when told of the Governor's action.

Brockway should have been summarily dismissed, and the reformatory should have been placed in the hands of a good man, instead of a man who has been shown to be a cruel and brutal man.

Gov. Flower has summoned the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory to appear before him in Albany to-morrow, to give answer to the arraignment made by the State Board of Charities.

CARRY BROS.

303, 305 and 307 Grand St. Cor. Allen St.

SUPERB DISPLAY FOR EASTER WEEK.

In consequence of our unequalled facilities for importing the latest fabrics directly from the best markets of Europe, we have now on exhibition our Spring

600 pce. 42-inch CHANGEABLE DIAGONALS, hop sacking, two-toned chevrons, armures, bengalines, etc., in all the newest spring shades, at 25c. per yard; worth 50c. 175 pieces 42-inch SERGE and JACQUARD NOVELTIES at 45c. per yard; worth 85c.

300 pieces 46-inch FRENCH HENRIETTES, SERGES and ARMURES, in over fifty different shades, at 60c. per yard; worth $1.25. 125 pieces Silk and Wool FIGURED JACQUARDS, BENJALINES, CREPES, ILLUMINATED ROYALTES and Silk and Wool CHANGEABLE CREPONS, all at the uniform price of 95c. per yard; worth $1.50.

Louis XV. Finest Brocatelle Suit, 3 Pcs., 19.50

EVERYTHING FOR HOUSEKEEPING, FROM THE FINEST TO THE PLAINEST.

Auction Sales. Auction Sales. UNREDEEMED PLEDGES, WITHOUT RESERVE.

By Order of M. SIMON, 41 HUNTER STREET. TO-MORROW (WEDNESDAY), BETWEEN 11 A. M. AND 1 P. M. AT AUCTION SALESROOM OF S. F. R. K. & N. N. AUCTIONEERS, 35 BOWERY. A VERY LARGE AND CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF

Diamonds, Fine Watches, Jewelry, Choice Silverware, Opera Glasses, Guns, Revolvers, Musical Instruments, and numerous other goods. Diamonds will be offered at 1 o'clock. Goods on exhibition till 11 A. M.

THE JOKE ON BANKER MORGAN. He Doesn't Want Any More Wedding Gifts with $450 Duties.

Wall Street Smiling over that Smug-gled Bracelet Episode.

The story of a bracelet sent to Miss Juliet Morgan, daughter of Banker J. Pierpont Morgan, in a manner which caused it to be seized by the customs authorities on account of the evident intention of the sender to smuggle it, set all Wall Street to talking to-day, and fellow bankers and brokers in the street considered it a good joke on the austere millionaire.

Not that they considered the matter of paying $450 duty on a present so trivial, but they realized how much he abhorred publicity, and especially publicity in a matter of that kind.

When an "Evening World" reporter called at his office this morning, Mr. Morgan was not in, but there was an ominous and unusual silence among the army of clerks, who were heads of the firm knew anything about the bracelet transaction.

At the Custom-House Collector Kilbreth said of course he knew about the matter, but he could not understand how it got out. He did not consider it of enough importance to talk about. The same was said by the collector of the duty on the bracelet.

The Inspector opened it, and found a tiny Lev. Dwight Moody's sermon, but with enough of the sermon to get out of the centre of the book to admit of placing a valuable bracelet, set with eight diamonds and eight sapphires. Mr. Morgan was notified, and told the customs man that the bracelet came from a nobleman in Italy, an old friend of his, and was intended as a wedding present for his daughter, Juliet, who is soon to be married.

Mr. Morgan was informed by the Collector that the bracelet was sent, surrounded with all the appearances of intent to smuggle, the bracelet would have to be seized.

Then Banker Morgan began to write letters to the Secretary of the Treasury, with the result that yesterday the Secretary notified Collector Kilbreth that he would release the bracelet to Mr. Morgan when the latter paid the duty of $450 thereon.

Mr. Morgan lost no time in doing this, and yesterday afternoon he gave the collector the Custom-House $450 duty and got the bracelet. He remarked that he hoped there were no more wedding presents of the way under the same conditions.

Miss Juliet Morgan, for whom the bracelet was intended, is the second daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, and has been betrothed to a young man, who is a member of the Hamilton family, and is a well-known clubman and is an enthusiastic horseman.

Women Must Sleep. If they only could sleep eight hours every night and one hour every day—

Their freshness and beauty would continue to the end of their lives.

All derangements of the uterus or womb, ovarian troubles, uterine tumors, spinal weakness, irregularity, indigestion, exhaustion, or "displacement," drives the nerves wild with excitement, and sleep is impossible.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy. It has saved thousands, and will save you. It strengthens the womb, removes all pain, and you sleep like a child.

For kidney troubles in either sex it is unequalled